NEXT CONCERT NOVEMBER 29

WILLIAM PRIMROSE and DAVID STIMER

The world famous violist and his talented accompanist will be heard at this second concert. The programme will include a first Toronto performance, it is believed, of Beethoven's Notturmo for viola and piano, the music of which was only recently rediscovered by Mr. Primrose. George Silfies of the Curtis Institute (Philadelphia) Clarinetist, will take part in the Mozart Trio.

WE are happy to welcome Hortense Monath this evening not only as participant in our Concert but also as representative of the celebrated New Friends of Music — New York. With husband, Ira A. Hirschmann, Miss Monath is co-founder and director of this famous organization which is soon to commence its 12th season of 20 Annual Chamber Music Concerts in Town Hall.

The New Friends have always, it should be noted, emphasized the music in preference to the performer, selecting the programmes first and then the most suitably gifted artists available. It was largely from the inspiration of this splendid example that the Friends of Great Music came into existence and any resemblance therefore one might say is hardly co-incidental.
